Tommy Choi co-founded Weinberg Choi Realty in 2007. Tommy grew up in the Mayfair, North Shore, and Lakeview neighborhoods of Chicago so he brings a vast knowledge of the city to Weinberg Choi's clients. His entrepreneurial spirit led him to start Weinberg Choi, as well as the Fluxus Dinner Series, a monthly event that brings together top influencers in Chicago to make the city a better place. Currently, Tommy serves on the Board of Directors of Chicago Association of Realtors (CAR), where he will be installed as Chairman in September 2018, and as the President-Elect and the Vice Chairman of the Young Professionals Network (YPN) Advisory Board for the National Association of Realtors (NAR). Tommy is an ambassador for the Chicago Community Trust "On the Table" program. He's also on the Development Board for the Academy for Global Citizenship, and is actively involved with the Asian Real Estate Association of America and the Women's Council of Realtors, which awarded him Entrepreneur of the Year in 2013. Tommy is the recipient of the CAR Community Service Award in 2014.
