A former Coldwell Banker regional property manager with over 1,000,000 sq. ft. under her supervision, Katy was born and raised in South Bend, IN. She attended Indiana University and Katy continued her real estate education by graduating from Coldwell Banker's Property Management School in Los Angeles. She has earned real estate licenses in multiple states, as well as an appraisal, community management and series six license. Katy is currently busy with her role as Vice President of The Far Points Group with her husband, Don, who serves as President. Katy enjoys the exotic flair of international travel, going to concerts, boating and bridge, along with her lifestyle in Coastal Florida to include the comforting nature of reading a good book and playing with her dogs. She is an accomplished real estate professional and enjoys nothing more than the beauty of her diverse environment. "I have simple tastes, but my standards are exceedingly high", she says about every adventure she and Don share together.
